GIRL IS DEAD; FOUR OTHERS ARE INJURED

The dangerous turn at Farmer's Valley store exacted tragic toll last Sunday night causing a terrible auto accident which snuffed out the life of Miss Marie Cook, 19 years old, a popular Port Allegany girl, who is well-known here, and injuring four other occupants of the machine.

Those injured are:

Miss Louise Mangold, who is in a critical condition at the Port Allegany Hospital, where the injured were taken after first aid by Dr. R. Hamilton, of this place. She is suffering from a badly injured back which was thought at first to be broken.

Margaret Cappellman, who is suffering from body injuries and shock.

Arthur Winterquist, driver of the machine, who is said to be so badly shocked at the death of Miss Cook that he is in a precarious nervous mental condition.

Gilding Winterquist, brother of the driver, is also suffering from the shock.

Coming down the hill on the other side of the store on their way from Bradford about nine o'clock presumably at a rapid rate of speed with the road crowded with cars, the death car—a Dodge—attempted to make a sharp turn to the left toward Port Allegany, but turned over several times, scattering the occupants and parts of the machine along the highway for a distance of at least fifty feet.

An Italian standing in the doorway of the Warren Moore Company's road camp saw the accident, and immediately rushed to the spot. He picked up the Cook girl and by that time a crowd of persons had gathered.

Dr. Hamilton was summoned, but nothing could be done for the victim, who died within a short time. After special treatment by the local physician, the others were taken to the hospital where their injuries were completely diagnosed.

Apparently the exact cause of the accident is in doubt, except the supposition that the machine was going at a terrific speed which would cause a car to turn over so many times, and demolish itself so completely.

HALLOWE'EN BRINGS FUN.

Mischief creatures roamed the streets, and mischievious little souls were behind every shadow waiting the result of their pranks upon the unwary on Hallowe'en night.

The street resounded with youthful laughter and there was plenty of good-natured fun in the air.

This holiday of exuberance was observed extensively here by numerous parties and miniature pageants, during the week as well as on that night.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS END BATTLE IN A DRAW

Ludlow High School and Smethport High School locked horns last Saturday at Kane field, and kept them locked during the entire game without giving much either way, the final score being 0 to 0.

The game was a thriller, no one being just certain until the last whistle blew what the result would be.

Ludlow in the first few minutes of play scored a touchdown by the forward pass route, and it might have gone unchallenged, but "Bill" Cramer noticed that a Ludlow guard caught the pass, which of course was not allowed.

Then the team played up and down the field without gaining much headway.

Smethport shoved the ball to within a few feet of the opposite goal, and then was held hard so that they failed to make their distance on downs and lost the ball.

The game with the St. Bernard's High school of Bradford, which was scheduled for last Tuesday was called off on account of rain.

The next game is not scheduled until November 11, Armistice Day—when Portville will battle on the local field. Smethport intends to give the Portville bunch the scrap of their lives, and there isn't a doubt but that the game will be a "rip roarer".

DON'T FORGET.

Tuesday is election day. It is your duty to vote. There is no contest locally, but other offices are to be decided.

Go to the polls and evidence your choice of candidates.

BISHOP WARD LEAVES AFTER PLEASANT VISIT

Rt. Rev. John C. Ward, bishop of Erie, after a very pleasant stay in town as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Van Dyke left for other points in the county after a very pleasant visit here.

The prelate expressed his thorough enjoyment and appreciation of the widespread hospitality shown him.

Several dinners and receptions in his honor, according to a program for his entertainment in last week's Miner and special services were held at St. Luke's church.

MRS. HANNORAH CONNOLLY

Death resulting from an operation at the Condersport Hospital came to Mrs. Hannorah Connolly 58 years old a most respected woman of this community early Tuesday morning.

She had been confined at the hospital for about eight weeks because of diabetes, and it was decided to operate in an endeavor to save her life. One limb was amputated, but this proved fatal.

She is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Welterick, of Coudersport, Mrs. Alice Heath, of Buffalo, and Miss Mayte Connolly, of Smethport; three sons, John and Scott, of Smethport, and Paul, of Cleveland, One brother, John Connors, of this place, and three granddaughters, also survive.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church.

Mrs. Connolly was an eminent woman both in the home and in public life, devoted to her children and the domestic labors of her home.

SKUNKS STILL WITH US BOTHER VAIN FLIRTS.

A skunk killed in the yard behind one of the local tonsorial parlors caused an odor all its own to pervade the premises.

Consequently on Tuesday morning when a number of our citizens were getting their hair cut, faces shaved and others so doffed up to make a hit with the visiting school teachers, they were bothered exceedingly by the odor of the dead skunk which was not at all like bay rum or perfumed soap.

That the skunk army which descended upon the town sometime ago is still with us is attested by the fact that last week a local teacher and High School student were forced to give a wide right-of-way to a skunk which appeared before them on the pavement after a visit with another teacher.

Also an incident has been heard of where two young skunks were found sitting on the window-sill of a house early one morning, but quickly ran off when seen by a member of the family.

DEEMS—MASSER

Charles W. Masser, who conducts the Masser hardware store on Main street was married to Miss Ella Lessel Deems, of Pittsburgh, at Olean District parsonage in Olean last week. Rev. H. H. Witham performed the ceremony.

The bride is well known in Smethport, having made extensive acquaintances by her winning personality during visits here.

KEATING TOWNSHIP MEMORIAL

The Civic Improvement Association has received a communication from the Pennsylvania railroad officials to the effect that the small triangular plot of ground beside the East Smethport depot platform might be used as a site for the proposed memorial to Keating Township heroes.

GAME REPORTED PLENTIFUL

Hunters who have been banging away in the nearby woods for the past few days, say that rabbits and birds as well as other game seems to be fairly plentiful.

300 TEACHERS HERE INSTITUTE SESSIONS MOST ENTERTAINING

The annual Teachers Institute is being attended by nearly three hundred of the county school instructors including those from Kane, making the attendance the largest in many years, and will close tonight with a high-priced production by the Aborn Operatic Sextette.

The outstanding feature of the four days' sessions was a forceful and highly instructive speech by Philip Campbell, who has represented a Kansas district for twenty years in the House of Representatives.

He substituted for the expected speaker, Senator F. B. Willis, of Ohio, who was detained owing to a pressure of questions before the Senate in which he is vitally interested.

Congressman Campbell, who is a statesman who has seen many a tumultuous session of the House during debate upon questions which have guided national history during the past decade, gave his audience an insight into the affairs of politics and government which in itself was equal to the reading of many books and records.

Declaring that the country was not being ruled so much by its executives as by the myriad of bureaus and committees with the accompanying soft jobs, the Congressman stated that there was millions being wasted in such a manner.

He also spoke on the chances of bringing about disarmament or at least a reduction of armaments, and the conference that is soon to take place in Washington for that purpose.

Congressman Campbell pictured the arrival of the peace delegates from Japan in the capital as he saw them last week clad in all the habiliments of high militaristic officers, in contrast with the appearance of the China delegates in the silk-d civilian garb—typifying the real cause of the Far East troubles.

He further stated that there would likely be no real peace or a reduction of armaments as long as the people held the war hero as demi-god while the inventors and discoverers were soon lost sight of, though their works lived forever.

Rt. Rev. John C. Ward, bishop of the diocese of Erie, opened the session with devotionals. The teachers, therefore, were given an opportunity to see the new prelate for the first time since his ordination.

Speaking Tuesday on his subejct, "Unshackled Youth," Dr. Slutz, of Dayton, who made such a favorable impression last year here said:

"There are on one side, the practical people, phlegmatical, efficient; on the other the emotional poetic, artistic people, Dr. Slutz said.

"The only person eligible to teach is an artist, for teaching is an art." There is often a gap between the teacher's enthusiasm and the pupil. The teaching of geography illustrates the need of spirit. The map of North America should stand for beautiful and terrible things. To teach history one must go back to the beginning of things—to that which we call the sun. History is the terrific threshing in life — so much suffering, bewilderment and courage. To teach manual training interest the boys in Stevenson, Stefansson, Scott, Nansen and such men so that they may learn heroism and bravery and how to make boats, bows and arrow and like things. To teach English do not sacrifice the emotional things to just words.

Dr. Charles F. Grawn, of Michigan whose topic on Tuesday afternoon, was "Training for Citizenship," said:

"In the army of boys and girls that public school training for citizenship we see representatives of every nation on earth as well as the islands of the sea. They must be made into intelligent, God-fearing law-abiding citizens. The unit of the educational system is the one school-room presided over by an average American young woman.

The many instructive lectures to the teachers were said to be of an excellent character, and there is no doubt but that there was more sound school logic taught during this institute than those of previous years.

LIFE OF FREDERICK C. OLDS BEGAN IN SMETHPORT STORE

Frederick C. Olds, one of Olean's most well-known and distinguished citizens, who years ago started his business career in Smethport in W. S. Brownell's store, and rose to the height of civic honor in Olean, died of bronchial pneumonia last week, as announced in the previous issue of the Miner.

The following complete account is taken from the Olean Herald, which is practically the entire life story of this respected man:

Mr. Olds was born in Bradford on July 5, 1848. In his early life he went to Farmer's Valley, where he conducted a general store for a number of years. Later he became associated in the lumber business in the town of Crosby, and after a number of years came to Olean where he took up his residence. He was interested in the Heinemann Chemical Company of Crosby and held an interest at the time of his death. He also held oil interests.

He was serving his second term as supervisor from the first ward.

Mr. Olds was a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce; member of the board of directors of the park commission, the Park Improvement Association, and was a park commissioner; a director of Olean Community Service; the Y. M. C. A.; a member of the Kiwanis Club. He was prominent in Liberty Loan drives.

Mr. Olds was also director of the Olean Trust Company up to the time of death, and also served as a director of the old Olean National Bank. He had been president of the First M. E. Church board of trustees.

He was a member of Olean Lodge, No. 252 F. & A. M., Olean Chapter, No. 150, Royal Arch Masons; St. John's Commandery, No. 24 Knights Templer; Olean Lodge o Perfection; Olean Council Princess of Jerusalem, Olean Chapter of Rose Croix de H. R. D. M., Olean Council Royal Select Masters, No. 33. Mr. Olds was a director of the Olean Masonic Temple association and treasurer of St. John's Commandery. He was also a member of I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 471.

Besides his wife Mr. Olds is survived by one daughter Ethel and two brothers, Charles C. Olds of this city and John Olds of Chicago, the latter arriving here early this morning.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moore of Holland, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Searle of Franklinville; Mrs. Lolett Williams, Mrs. Eugene Thomas, Mrs. Arnold Thomas, Claude Thomas, Mr. and and Mrs. Roy Amsden of Cuba, N. Y.; Mrs. Grant Arnold of Filmore, N. Y.; John Olds of Chicago, Ill; Mrs. Frances McCoy of Mt. Jewett, Pa.; Mrs. Edna Thomas of Rochester, N. Y.; Dr. H. L. McCoy of Smethport, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Gallup of Crosby, Pr.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Foster of Bradford, Pa.

ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANS BEFORE COUNCIL MONDAY

J. Clayton Backus will go before the borough council meeting next Monday evening, and lay the facts of his campaign for electricity before that body.

He states that he now has something over $23,000 subscribed to in stock of the power company, and the rest of the necessary amount is promised.

NATIONAL AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION BEAUTIFULLY STAGED

Dr W. A. Ostrander, of Smethport is Attending the National Convention.

Kansas City, Nov. 1.—Under a brilliant autumn sky and through crowds so dense that they repeatedly surged through the police lines, the American Legion today passed in review before distinguished military and naval leaders of France, Great Britain, Italy and Belgium, and ranking officers of the United States army, navy and marine corps.

The distinguished visitors, Marshal Foch of France, Admiral Beatty of Great Britain, General Diaz of Italy, Lieutenant General Jacques of Belgium, and the American representatives of national defense, General Pershing, Admiral Hugh Rodman, U. S. N. and Major General John A. Lejeune commanding the Marine Corps, marched with their "buddies" of the Legion from Convention hall, where the parade was formed, to the reviewing stand at Eighteenth street and Grand avenue, a distance of ten blocks. Then they turned into the reviewing stand, where they stood while the Legion thousands passed by.

CONCRETE WORK ON ROAD TO KASSON IS STOPPED

Concrete work on the Kasson-Smethport road was stopped on last Friday, owing to the advanced season. Possible damage from frost is what prompted the highway department to take his step.

The bridge over Marvin creek in Smethport borough has been opened to the public and it is thought that within three weeks traffic will be permitted over the unfinished portion of the road doing away for the fall and winter with the detour over the old railroad grade from Mt. Jewett to Ormsby in driving from Kane to Smethport.

Considering the fact that the contract on this section of highway was not awarded in time to permit of an early start last spring, the contractors, L. Cohen & Co., of Buffalo, have made rapid progress in building the road.

WORK ON NEW MUNN BUILDING STARTS

Ground was broken this week for the erection of a fine two story building for L. E. Munn, whose rapidly growing business demands larger quarters.

The construction work will not interfere, however, with his regular business, owing to the manner in which the erecting of the building is to be caried out.

BROUGHAM-IRONS.

Miss Janette Brougham was married to Mr. Edwin Irons last Sunday afternoon at the United Brethern church parsonage at Farmers Valley. The principals are both of Smethport, Pa.

The ceremony took place at 5 o'clock.

Mr. Milford Broughton, of Ormsby and Mrs. Florence Brewer, of Smethport, were the attendants, and Rev. A. L. Pang performed the ring ceremony.

Mrs. Brougham, the brides' mother, attended the services.

The couple will make their home on the Irons farm, outside of town.

Now is the time to subscribe to the Miner.

M. S. PARKER AUTO STRUCK BY SHAWMUT

Their car struck by the Shawmut railroad train at the East street crossing, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Parker, had a narrow escape from serious injury, were badly shaken up, and the car extensively damaged on Tuesday afternoon.

The accident occurred about 2 o'clock when Mr. Parker was on his way up town.

As he started across the tracks he saw the train coming and threw on his brakes. Owing to the slippery condition of the street, his car skidded forward, and he then threw it around sidewise.

The train hit the rear end of the machine and knocked it to one side.

The top, body, fenders and windshield of the machine were smashed, and Mr. Parker's spectacles broken in the mix-up. Mr. Parker and his wife are recovering from the scare of their hairbreath experience.

MR. L. W. THOMAS.

After being employed in Cleveland for some months, Mr. L. W. Thomas, 35 years old, was found dead in bed. Death was caused by an attack of heart failure.

Mr. Thomas is the brother of Mrs. Livica Carey, of this place and formerly lived in Port Allegany.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elsie Thomas, of Olean, and four daughters, Mrs. Rachael Campbell, Mrs. Navis Bartlett, and Misses Ulalilia and Anna Thomas. Also two brothers, Charles Thomas, of Port Allegany and William Thomas of Wyoming.

The body was brought to Port Allegany yesterday, and burial will be made there.

REVIVAL MEETINGS CLOSE AT FARMERS VALLEY HALL.

The special meetings at the Grange Hall at Farmers Valley came to a close last Friday evening. Large crowds attended, seeming to grow larger as the sessions drew to a close. The seating capacity of the hall was taxed to its limit at times.

The meetings undoubtedly would have continued longer had Rev. J. A. Baker been able to remain. Speaking of the result, Rev. Pang said, "Our prayer is that those who have been awakened to a sense of sin may not seek to stifle the conviction or silence the voice of conscience but that they shall early seek the Lord for mercy and pardon.

At the Sunday services in the church there were thirteen who received baptism, eight were received into full membership in the church and two small boys were admitted as watch-care members."

ST. ELIZABETH'S AID SOCIETY HOLDS MEETINGS.

The ladies of St. Elizabeth's Aid Society drove to the home of Mrs. Pete Fay where they were entertained and served with a fine chicken dinner and where they held the first meeting of the fall season.

On last Thursday they accepted the invitation of Mrs. J. J. Kane and Mrs. Wm. Mahoney of Ormsby and and enjoyed a bounteous least prepared by those two ladies. Hallowe'en decorations were used on the table and throughout the house. On November 10 they will meet at the home of Mrs. Jas. McKean.

FOR THE MODERN CHILD.

Mother had promised little Clara a doll and Clara was allowed to accompany her to purchase one. They entered the store where a large assortment awaited them.

"This doll," said the salesman, "can say 'mama' and 'papa,' this one here can shut its eyes, and this one can say 'Oh,' when you put a new dress on it."

"Have you one that cries when you don't put a new dress on it?" asked the little Clara.—Klods-Hans (Copenhagen).

SILENT ADORATION.

"What surprises me most about Scotland (writes a visitor) is not the absence of haggis and the kilt, or the presence of finely metalled roads, but the silence of the barbers' shops. Artist, and client say nothing more to each other than the few words necessary for the success of the operation in hand. When I remarked on this phenomenon to a much-traveled Scot, 'Aye,' he commented, 'they're both thinking hard about the tip.'"—London Morning Post.

"What's the Latest in Closed Cars?"
Here is the answer—

The tendency is towards lowness and lightness—replacing the clumsiness and heavy appearance of old-time bodies.

Note how the new Marmon Sedans, Coupes, Suburbans and other closed models eliminate the usual top-heavy appearance.

Another tendency is towards added vision. Note how the new Marmons introduce an entirely new treatment of windshield design, giving the driver a wider vision, adding both comfort and safety in driving.

Larger doors and windows, roomier seating, more comfortable upholstering, and dozens of other important improvements, give the new Marmons an exclusive field amongst high-grade cars.

Don't delay in seeing them and riding in them. Mere words and pictures are insufficient in describing these superior closed cars, mounted on the dependable Marmon chassis.

May we have the pleasure of showing them to you this week?

SECRET ORDERS ANCIENT

Present Vogue of Emblems, It Can Be Proved, Is More Than 5,000 Years Old.

"Do you notice what an increase there has been in the wearing of emblem and fraternity pins these days?" asked Jones.

"I suppose you think that is just an up-to-date fad, don't you?" returned his friend of antiquarian bent. "Well, let me tell you, it is not. Watch chains were favored at least five thousand years before watches, and fraternity badges equally long ago.

"The very same symbols which the boomers are wearing in their lapels and on their folds today are survivals of forms which were in popular use for the same purpose when Nebuchadnezzar was a kid in school. You see, it was like this: In the days when kings could seldom write their own names and their subjects attributed every natural phenomenon to one of their multifarious gods or devils, there were always a few, at least, who knew some of the truth.

"Glimmerings of a true science were beginning to dawn on mankind, but humanity was too close to barbarism for such a thing as a law of nature to be understood. When it was perceived that certain laws did exist they were set down to the will and desire of one or another divinity, and when taught to a selected few were hedged about with all sorts of obligations not to reveal the secrets of the gods to the 'profane' a word which originally meant 'outside the temple.' Architecture, geometry, arithmetic, music, astronomy, the alphabet and the decimal system were once called 'mysteries,' and the process of sublimely soaring the prospective student nearly if not quite to death as a warping to sidepose before letting him in on the secrets was the preliminary to all education. And each order has its symbol or pin."

BREAK JAIL AND FLEE

Coudersport, October 29.—Three prisoners of the Potter county jail escaped from that place Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock when they overpowered Allen Frink who was in the act of feeding them, and made good their escape. The men have been traced to Canton, Penna., and Sheriff Clark is at that place where State troopers are aiding him in endeavoring to round up the trio, and it is confidently expected that they will be apprehended before night. The escaped prisoners are Joe Zaykr of Walton, charged with larceny; James Peterson of Corning, charged with rape, and Wilson Thompson of Brooklyn, Pa., charged with the theft of an automobile.

Sheriff and Mrs. Clark and daughters were in Jamestown Tuesday afternoon to consult a specialist regarding the condition of their daughter, Pauline, and left the jail in charge of Allen Frink. When Mr. Frink went to feed the prisoners they prevailed upon him to make them some tea and when he opened the door to place the tea on the table he was grabbed by the three men, gagged and locked in one of the cells. In addition to treating Mr. Frink pretty roughly, they stole $38 in cash, the keys of Mr. Clark and his coat and made their get-away.

Clayton Young went to the jail at about seven o'clock and finding the door open, investigated and found Mr. Frink locked in the cell. Sheriff Clark returned about seven thirty and got in communication with all the surrounding towns and with Deputy Gillon and Constable Evans went to Walton, thinking perhaps that Zaylor would head the crowd in that direction.

Early Wednesday morning Sheriff Clark was notified that the Ford car of Robert Sinsabaugh had been stolen at Sweden Valley and later that three men had stopped at the Dnell farm and purchased three gallons of gasoline in order to get over Denton Hill. It was still later learned that this same trio had filled the car with gas at the Lyman Run Hotel, had gone through Galeton at about 12 o'clock and through Mansfield at three o'clock. From that point all trace of them was lost until Wednesday night when Sheriff Clark received a phone call from the Chief of Police of Canton stating that an abandoned Ford car had been found. He stated that he had been attracted by suspicious actions of three men who were seeking to secure food from a farm house, and when he started to investigate the men beat it for the woods. He identified the car by means of Mr. Sinsabaugh's name written on the license plates which were under the rear seat. Immediately upon communicating with Mr. Clark, he also notified the State troopers and was confident that before night the three men would be in custody.

AFTER HUNTING VIOLATORS.

Bradford, Oct 28.—C. B. Benson of Mt. Jewett, game warden of McKean county and Cecil Metzger of Smethport, deputy game warden, are in the city today on official business. They have been very busy tramping the wilds of this county for there seems to be hunters about bent on breaking the game laws, not being able to await the opening of the season on November 1.

Yesterday the officers arrested Charles Stroub of James City, near that place, for hunting out of season and already several arrests have been made by the officers here today.

GOVERNOR SPROUL IN KANE FOR SEVERAL MINUTES.

Kane Oct. 26—Governor William C. Sproul and party arrived in Kane last evening from Erie at 9:50 o'clock. The train, which is due to arrive at 9:20, was a half hour late on account of awaiting the arrival of the Oil City train at Corry. The governor traveled in his private car, No. 160, which was attached to the rear of the train. Upon arrival here one of the party stepped from the car, and in a few minutes conversation with a representative of The Republican stated that the governor had put in quite a strenuous day at Erie and that he had retired shortly before they arrived in Kane, and that they had a long trip ahead of them as they were on their way to New York, where the governor was due to fill an important engagement today. After the usual ten-minute stop here for inspection the train departed at 10 o'clock.

W. FRANK POTTER, FORMER BRADFORD MAN DEAD

Bradford, Oct. 29.—W. Frank Potter, for many years a prominent and popular newspaper man in Bradford, died yesterday morning in Tulsa, Okla. Death was caused by apoplexy. First word of Mr. Potter's illness was received here on Wednesday by his sister, Mrs. J. A. Brawley, and Mrs. Potter's sisters, the Misses Ella and Katherine McCullough. Yesterday morning they were notified of his death.

Mr. Potter would have been 54 years old on November 7. The greater part of his life had been spent in Bradford prior to his removal to Tulsa about eight years ago. During his residence in Tulsa, he was connected with the Oil and Gas Journal, and was manager of that publication at the time of his death.

"Jack wanted to kiss me last night," she told her girl friend.

"How do you know he did?"

"Because he wouldn't have done it if he hadn't wanted to."—Boston Transcript.

Neighbors

Your telephone service is in the hands of your neighbors.

The men and women who build and operate the telephone lines are a part of this community. They are interested in business improvement and civic betterment because they know the telephone industry must prosper or decline as the community improves or retrogrades.

Like "the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker," the members of the Bell System Family serve a common need. They understand your telephone requirements and they have the training and the equipment necessary to give you the right kind of service.

Whether it be to put the people of this vicinity in touch with each other, or in communication with points from 35 to 3,500 miles distant, this organization is on the alert day and night.

EDGAR A. GUEST APPEARS IN BRADFORD LATER.

Bradford, Oct. 29.—Because of the serious illness of Edgar A Guest, eminent poet, who was to give an address and recitations in the High School auditorium, Monday evening, Bradford Post, No. 108, was compelled yesterday to postpone that entertainment which was to be the first of the Legion course. The Legion will make an effort to bring Mr. Guest here later in the season.

W. H. Dennis, Jr., Chairman of the entertainment committee of Bradford post, received a telegram yesterday, informing him that Mr. Guest was seriously ill in Philadelphia and had been obliged to postpone all engagements.

FOOTBALL PLAYER HURT.

Bradford, Oct. 31.—Andrew Willow, of Johnsonburg, a member of the Johnsonburg football team which was here yesterday at the driving park with the All-Stars, was badly injured in the game and taken in Oxley's ambulance to the Bay State hotel.

Dr. J. B. Stewart was called to attend the injured man and found his condition so serious that he had him removed to the hospital, where Dr. Benninghoff was called in consultation.

An operation was performed which revealed the fact that the young man was ruptured internally. He is now in a critical condition at the hospital.

The game was a spirited one, Bradford winning by a 13 to 7 score.

CORYVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hibbard of Belmont, N. Y. former residents of this place have rented a house in Coryville and will make this place their home for a while at least.

Geo. Parker has finished the cement work on his new cow barn, and thinks he will finish the balance in a month or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fillabrown of Belmont, New York, were Sunday visitors at the Jackson home in Kent Hollow.

H. L. Harmon and Bob Cleveland were at the Bradford market last Saturday with a load of poultry and other farm produce.

Mrs. Nellie Taylor entertained a large party of young people on Friday evening, in honor of her brother, Vernon's birthday, a genial good time was had by all, luncheon was served at midnight, and soon after all departed for their homes. We all wish you many more birthdays Vernon.

Ask the Coryville young people how they like to walk from the top of Bush hill to Port Allegany and then get there too late for the foot ball game.

A large crowd attended the Coryville Grangers Masquerade party on Hallowe'en, all reported a very a very, enjoyable time. Ice cream and other good things were served by the committee in charge all went home feeling that such gatherings are one of the things that make life worth living.

The O. Tuttle family motored to Olean on Sunday where they will visit for a week with friends and relatives at and near Olean.

The advance in crude oil has started the oil men out with a new lease of life. Fairchild started drilling on the Millrons farm and Art Wilson is at work on D. Windsors.

Prof. Earl Gill of Hazelhurst school, was a week-end visitor at the Gill home.

The rabbit season opened last Tuesday and every man who owned a gun and dog or could borrow one, was out after the fuzzy bunnies All report a good time, also some rabbits.

G. M. Crandall and family of Bradford were week-end visitors at the home of the formers sister Mrs. Mary Parker in Kent Hollow.

A large number of new members were initiated into the mysteries of the third degree of the Coryville Grange on Saturday evening, after the degree work all sat down to one of those bountiful suppers the Grange is noted for, the balance of the evening was spent in playing games by the grange people and a general good time by all.

Watch the Miner for the big community fair and supper soon.

Orrin Crandall is visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Parker for a few weeks and will then settle down for the winter in Eldred.

Mrs. Jennie Rice of Kent Hollow has been visiting relatives at Shingle house for the past week.

Zetto Tyler, wife and daughter motored to Bradford Sunday for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Tyler and Florence will stay for a week at Lewis Run and in the city. It will be a long week for Zetto.

AGAIN—TOO MUCH SPEED.

A fool and his life are soon parted, one might say with regard to the speed fool.

Though we know we might as well shout to the waves of the sea to stand still as to warn the later day speed demon, we are tempted to cast a few remarks into the swirl of dust he ever leaves in his mad wake.

This shallow-pated wretch who endangers the more valuable lives of others, far more than even his own infinitesimal existence is in our midst. He does not dwell elsewhere but right in our home town—yes, in this town, and sad to say in number.

All the laws under heaven and warning signs he could not heed nor see as he tears along through space, toward the only result—death, for someone, though frequently it may be a blessing that speed suicide soon overtakes him.

Stepping on the gas is a popular pastime, no doubt, but the man who runs his car carefully and decently distinguishes and lifts himself from the mass of simpletons who do not.

THE STRIKE MENACE.

By calling off the strike order, the railway brotherhoods bowed to public opinion and yielded to the mandate of the Federal Government; but there is nothing in their action which offers any guarantee to the public that their threat will not be rewarded. It would be a mistake to look upon their present surrender as indicative any intention on their part to give up the general strike as a weapon to be used against the railways and the public at some future stage of the wage controversy, when they may deem it necessary to carry their fight to the last ditch. The public and the Government will not make the error of over confidence.

The best that can be said for the changed situation is that it offers a breathing space, both for the continued operation of the slow and clogged machinery created by laws for the adjustment of the relations between the railways and their employes and for the precautionary measures necessary to be taken for the protection of the public—the last to be considered, apparently, by the immediate parties to the wage controversy. There may be some reassurance in the intelligence that elaborate preparations had been made principally by Secretary Hoover, for the marshaling of every possible resource of the Nation to nullify the purpose of the railway union to cripple the country. But the armistice will have lost its chief value if it is not utilized for careful thought and preparation to ascertain what can be done by legislation to remove every cause of complaint in the existing system under the Federal railway enactments.—Public Ledger.

FRED C. OLDS.

Fred C. Olds, a good man and a good citizens passed away at his home in this city Wednesday evening. The Evening Herald believes that every citizen who knew him at all will readily agree that he was a valuable citizen whose death will constitute a very great loss to the community.

Some men if they had been placed in Fred Old's shoes, would have taken life easy and just played the drone, for he was a man of considerable means, enough to make it unnecessary to work or engage in business in order to gain a livlihood. But this man was not of that stamp. Up to the day of his last illness, he was busy in many ways. He looked after his properties around town, attending meetings of the board of supervisors of Cataraugus county was on hand to lend his advice and assist at meetings of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors and of the trustees of the First Methodist church, and when important Chamber of Commerce matters came up, when the Olean Auto Club met, when in short anything of a public nature came up it was a pretty sure guess this public spirited man with his great interest in uplifting and really progressive matters would be found in his chair ready to do his part.

Such interest in public matters as shown for years by Fred Olds will make any citizen worth while and when the summons comes he will go to his reward with the consciousness of having contributed to that which has made the community better in the highest sense of the word.

There are but few men who could be spared as little as Mr. Olds. The loss to the city and county is a heavy one in that it takes away a man whose counsel and wise judgment was of great value. We all know that a good man had gone and as we mourn his departure it would be well for us to think how we may follow his worthy example in doing those things for the community which are helpful.—Olean Herald.

SONG FOR THE THIRST OF THE MONTH.

Dorothy Parker.

Money cannot fill our needs,
Bags of gold have little worth;
Thank we all wives and kindly deeds
Make a heaven here on earth.

Riches do not always score,
Loving words are better far,
Just one helpful act is more
Than a gaudy motor car.

Happy thoughts contentment brings,
Crabbed millionaires can't know;
Money doesn't mean a thing,—
Try to tell the butcher so!

None an stretch his life an hour
Though he offers boundless wealth
Money, spite of all its pow'r
Cannot purchase ruddy health.

Simple pleasures are the best,
Riches bring but misery,
Homely hearts are happiest,
Joys laughs aloud at poverty.

Pity those in Mammon's thrall,
Poor, misguided souls are they.
Money's nothing, after all,—
Make this grocer think that way!

Greatest minds the world has known
All agree that gold is dross
Man can't live by wealth alone;
Thank heaven for a joyful toss.

Banish sorry and sorrow and gloom,
Throw off money's harsh control;
Sow good deeds and watch them bloom,—
Unselfish, to feed the soul.

Hoard no pelf lest moth and rust
Do their work and leave you flat.
Money! it is less than dust.
Laugh the landlord off with that!

GOOD PROPORTION.

Dad—Tommy, if you'll saw some wood I'll tell you what I'll do.

Tommy—What's that, Dad?

Dad—I'll let you have the sawdust to play circus with.—Vancouver Province.

PIGS AS FORM OF CURRENCY

Centuries Ago the Animals Were Generally Accepted in England in Payment of Rent.

Quaint though they seem, the rents, customs and services paid to the prince of Wales at Lathkeston were once common enough all over England, and it would be easy to show many parallels for Lancashire and Cheshire. In the Fourteenth century in Cheshire rent in kind was often paid in sparrowhawks, barbed arrowheads, pepper, gloves and especially in pigs.

Arrowheads would be useful, but a large rent roll of the other things might be inconvenient. They were, therefore, sold, and the relative values are interesting. The sparrowhawks were worth about 25 cents, the gloves two cents a pair and the pepper about 20 cents a pound. Pigs, of course, vary in size and weight and must have given rise to controversies between bailiffs and tenants. Some approach to a standard size was doubtless obtained, and the pigs are usually described as "reasonable" or "customary" pigs. Even so, the price the bailiff obtained varied greatly, some selling for 35 cents each and some for 90 cents. Pigs were paid not only by poor tenants for their tiny holdings, but also by families as rich and powerful as the Grosvenors.—Manchester Guardian.

Manifold Uses of Silk.

Silk is one of the most used materials in modern merchandise, as a member of a big city firm has discovered. He finds it in from 30 to 35 different departments in his own establishment. It is in departments of women's and children's gowns, in men's, women's and children's underwear, in the hosiery departments, men's and women's neckwear, handkerchiefs, in the umbrella department, in upholstery, in fancy goods, and even among the notions, where spool silk is sold. Classified in this way, silk comes to rank more as a generally useful article than the luxury it is supposed to be.

Competition.

A young man from sunny Italy was testifying in the Cross county (Arkansas) circuit court in a case in which he was plaintiff, and, true to his race, was very excited and talking as fast as his knowledge of the English language would permit.

Looking down at the stenographer, he noticed for the first time that his testimony was being reduced to writing (the reporter was trying his best to keep up), and thereupon began to talk faster than ever, until finally he burst forth at the reporter:

"Don't writ-a so fas'; I can'ta keep up with you."

BELIEF COST HIM HIS JOB

Reporter Was Discharged Because He Had Faith in Practicability of Edison's Electric Lamp.

"Did you ever hear of the New York newspaper reporter who lost his job, only a few years ago, because he wrote an article for his paper about Edison's demonstration of the first electric lamp? The publisher said he had no place on his paper for a dreamer and who would believe you could split electricity through a wire that had no hole in it, so fired the reporter unceremoniously.

"The speaker was a grizzled old electrical engineer, who has attained the age when he is inclined to look back on things as they were and to attempt to understand the forces that have brought about the marvelous changes he has witnessed within his lifetime.

"You know," he continued, "as I look back upon the development of electrical engineering, it seems to me that advertising has had more to do with it than any other factor. Electrical companies are willing to go almost any length in the development of new conveniences because they have learned not only about electricity, but have also learned what is more important—how to tell the people about their products, through advertising.

"Suppose I have an idea for a new kind of electric lamp. I could afford to spend nearly any amount in perfecting it, because, within a few weeks after it is ready for the market I can, through advertising, get it on the shelves of thousands of merchants, and I can have millions of people asking for it by name."

MEANT TO HOLD PRISONERS

On Russell A. Straight's Arrest on Charges of W's Charges Getting Away From Him.

"The late Willard Straight," said a Cornell professor, "is responsible for a story which applies to both China and the Chinese.

"Straight, in his official capacity in China, once undertook to hand over to a Chinese policeman nine Chinese delinquents. This happened in a small, inland village. Straight, in a high wall of round to the policeman's quarters to see how his prisoners were getting along.

"He found them holding hands in a ring—or so at least, it seemed—and dancing round and round a tall flagstaff, like children playing ring-around-a-rosy. Straight drew nearer, and saw that the men were not really holding hands, but were handcuffed wrist to wrist.

"The policeman then came out and stirred them up with a long pole, whereupon they danced a little faster. The policeman explained to Straight that there was no village jail, and so he had adopted this flagstaff method of detaining his prisoners.

"'But why,' said Straight, 'do you keep them dancing all the time?'

"'That,' said the policeman, 'is to prevent them from climbing up the flagstaff and escaping.'

"Straight tried to explain that nine men, handcuffed together, could scarcely climb up a flagstaff simultaneously, but the policeman thought it was best to be on the safe side, and his nine prisoners danced their weary dance round the flagstaff all night long."

Buying and Selling Without Money.

The difficulties in conducting trades without money are illustrated in the following, reported by the United States Trades commission at Riga:

According to current news from Soviet Russia, the Council of the People's Commissariat has established arbitrary exchange values for certain commodities, with one pood (36 pounds) of rye grain taken as the basis. It is stated that this move has been made necessary by the reintroduction of freedom in private trade.

From these arbitrary commodity exchange values, as established in June, it appears that one pound of rye grain is fixed as the equivalent of 12 poods of salt, 25 poods of petroleum, 12 packages of matches, 3 metal pails, 4 iron spades or 6 arshins (1 arshin equals 28 inches) of calico.

Coal From Spitzbergen.

A few months ago the first Holland contingent of engineers and coal miners embarked for Spitzbergen to work the extensive coal properties recently acquired by a group of well-known Holland commercial men. The first cargo of Spitzbergen coal arrived at Rotterdam, August 11, direct from the mines of the Netherlands-Spitzbergen company. Notwithstanding the high freight rates, it has been shown that Spitzbergen coal can be laid down in Holland at a price lower than that paid for English or German coal. Easy access to the coal beds and economical working of the mines make these cheaper deliveries to Holland possible. Enormous amounts of coal are available.

Machine Measures Golf Drive.

Golf enthusiasts bent upon developing an ability to make long drives can measure their progress by means of a machine which has been invented to record accurately the length of drives.

The machine consists of a steel pole on the top of which is a dial to the mechanism of which is attached a cord. The golf ball is attached to the end of this cord. When the player strikes the ball the force of the drive is recorded on the dial and the length of the drive, had the ball not been held by the cord, can be determined.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

AMERICANS BUY AUSTRIAN VILLA

"Liechenschaft," Ancient Seat of Nobility, Now Home of Laughing Children.

Villas in Vienna are used to varied and passing dreams since wartimes. Refugees and outcasts move out to the palaces to move in, or gaudy palaces. Now and then, however, one of those fine old homes gets a new recent thing. It is not ashamed of. The illustration is one shown in the photograph, "Liechtenschaft," is both in the largest family in its history, about it and is aristocratic period with relics with an amazing amount of merry chatter and laughter. It had probably been many a day since any kind of merriment had sounded through its tapestried halls. The present possessors of this big villa and the 100 dwellings of the grounds are 60 baby orphans, ages two to five years old, and the women who take care of them.

Nothing but American money could have purchased such a good home for these helpless youngsters. The Na tional Lutheran Council, through its European Commissioner, Dr. John A. Morehead, made the deal, and invested money to the best advantage. This property was bought for less than $100,000 and was filled with luxuries which would have cost many times that sum. Here the persecuted Lutherans have been living their days in peace and plenty, and their children are getting fat on good food and fun.

Dr. Morehead has created a new child welfare department, at the head of the staff of the following adapted and placed with them in the new regime. Different nationalities were represented in the 100 splendid nurseries, every night and the library makes the hottest sort of play room on rainy days. The crystal fruit and table have a most fascinating finish which you jump up and down on the floor. As for the kitchen, it is the busiest spot in the house and works overtime. Gardens, orchards, cows and chickens were counted in the first equipment, so that little outside purchasing is necessary. The apple trees are immensely popular with these children who had forgotten what apples looked like, even if they ever had known. Inside the white picket fence are chestnut trees rigged up with rope swings. Back of the vegetable garden is a rippling brook with tiny pebbles on the bottom that tickle your bare feet, and there is a perfectly stunning rubber's cave in the hill a little way.

American Lutherans, in their World Service Campaign for $1,250,000 to be conducted the last two weeks in October, are underwriting numerous orphanages in 17 countries of Europe. In addition to the Council's many other activities there, Europe's orphan problem is so appalling that it is utterly impossible to cope with it alone. If American friends succeed in sustaining Europe in this one thing, it will be enough to guarantee the salvation—political, economic, commercial, moral and spiritual—of the next generation.

"BUDAPEST UNIVERSITY" NEW REFUGEE COLLEGE

DR. J. A. MOREHEAD

Refugee camps, beds, and soup kitchens, are common enough in Europe, but in Budapest there is even a Refugee College. There is no pipe organ in the chapel, nor marble sculpture in the rotundas, and it has, alas, no football team as yet, but there are just as many degrees after the names of the 36 professors as if it were a full fledged State Varsity, and the graduates have just as authentic diplomas.

From miles and miles away these persecuted Lutherans had fled to Budapest and Dr. John A. Morehead, European Commissioner of the National Lutheran Council, found the wretched colony on the outskirts of the city living in box cars, two years ago. American money very quickly brought about a building for classes and another one for the faculty boarding house, and out of the box cars came a corps of distinguished professors and 120 students to start with.

"I have never witnessed so impressive a ceremony," stated Sir William Atkinson of England, who was present at the Commencement exercises of Refuge College and Seminary last June, and saw the class of 1921 march down the aisles singing. Their clothes were home made, patched and worn shiny, and their hands rough from exposure and hard work, but their voices rang clear and triumphant in that old Luther hymn of four centuries ago, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

LOCK OF GRAT MAN'S HAIR

Old Watch Has Long Held Interesting Relic of the Mighty Emperor Napoleon.

A new Napoleon souvenir has just come to light at Viareggio, Italy, now a fashionable seaside resort not far from Naples, and its history is interesting. A short time after her brother's death at Longwood, St. Helena, Princess Pauline, favorite sister of Napoleon I, sent a souvenir of the great warrior and emperor to one of her intimate friends, Professor Pacini, a musician, who wrote the musical work "Saphio." But she sent it in a gold watch carefully pressed between the watch's outer and inner covers, explains a writer in the New York World. As the hair was so well hidden from view the princess wrote to the musician telling him of the treasure that was inside.

The letter, still preserved by his granddaughter, Francesca Franchi, born Pacini, is a long one, and for some reason or other the family, like the original recipient of the gift, never bothered about the words. "The lock of my dear brother's hair is between the two covers of the watch," and only treasured the watch and the letter because both came from Princess Pauline. So great was Signora Franchi's surprise when, on taking the watch to the watchmaker, she discovered a glossy lock of hair between the two covers. The letter from Pauline was carefully reread and the words telling of the lock of hair now become the most important part of it, giving proof that the hair is a hitherto undiscovered relic of Napoleon.

Several offers have been made for the relic and the letter which explains it, but Signora Franchi says she will not part with it except the Italian government buys it for one of the national museums.

REP. BLANTON MAKES APOLOGY TO THE HOUSE.

Washington, Oct. 28.—An apology to the House, which attempted yesterday to expell him, was made today by Representative Thomas L. Blanton, Democrat, of Texas, in a letter to Speaker Gillett read to his colleagues and warmly applauded, especially by Republicans.

The letter was sent to the Speaker and laid before the House by Representative Walsh, Republican, Massachusetts, acting in the former's absence. It read:

"I am involved in no issue before the House, hence what I throw say is not a sacrifice of my principles.

"When I expressed a wish of being able to place before the country the record expunged I was misunderstood by my colleagues who believed that I would circulate the objectionable language. My intention was not to do this, but to circulate the expunged Record with all the objectionable words and abbreviations contained in the employe's affidavit eliminated and circulated only to show to the country the honest bona fide purpose of my remarks.

"I realize that the judgment of no human is infallible. I bow to the collective judgment of my colleagues against none of whom I harbor malice and offer this, my apology, to the House for what my colleagues in their decision determined was an error.

PRINTER WAS PEEVED.

From the Kane Republican we glean this: Charles Harris, of Fort Worth, Texas, a friend of Mr. Subliners in the printing business, got slightly peeved at a letter from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letterheads, different sizes, different grades and colors and wanted the printing form held standing. So Charley took his typewriter in hand and wrote:

"Am in the market for bids on one operation for appendicitis. One, two or five-inch incision—with or without ether—also with or without nurse. If appendix is found to be sound, want quotations to include putting same back and canceling order. If removed, successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for about 60 days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gallstones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting."—Kansas Post.

The AMERICAN LEGION

(Copy for This Department Supplied by the American Legion News Service)

LEGION IN LOAN BUSINESS

Fargo, N. D. Post Adjutant Works Out Plan for the Benefit of His Buddies.

The first instance in which the American Legion has gone into the trust, savings and loan business is reported from Fargo, N. D.

To encourage thrift and to help the needy, the post, on January 1, 1921, instituted an American Legion Bonus Loan association from plans worked out by Arthur F. Colair, post adjutant. Four hundred of the post's 700 members already have deposited sums from $5 to $25 on which five per cent interest is paid. A Legion man wishing to borrow assigns his state compensation claim to the Legion—it will require eight years for North Dakota to pay all service men the bonus awarded them. The borrower may obtain up to 50 per cent of the amount to be awarded him by the state. He pays interest at 8 per cent.

Business is transacted through a Fargo bank. To date more than fifty loans have been made and more than $2,000 has been paid into the savings fund. A dividend is paid semi-annually to depositors. Immediately upon being granted a loan the person to whom it is made must open a savings account to insure proper expenditure of the money. Legion posts in many states have written the Fargo post for information upon which to base a similar system.

THINK HE WILL BE GOVERNOR

People of Washington State See Bright Future for Their Soldier Lieutenant-Governor.

"He's just naturally lucky," the people of Washington say of William Johnings Coyle, their lieutenant governor, who they claim, is the youngest man in the world holding that office.

Coyle has been a "natural athlete" since his youngster days. For four years he was Gil Dobie's quarterback on the famous University of Washington team. He acted and looked for the varsity baseball team and he was a star middle's. Following graduation he was a reading clerk in three sessions of the Washington legislature.

During the war, he claims, his luck held. He was promoted from second lieutenant to captain for bravery, was wounded in the Argonne while serving with the 362d infantry, and was awarded a Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry. He is 32 years old, the father of two girls and sells farm tractors when not occupied with his official duties as lieutenant-governor. The people of Washington declare he will be lucky enough to be the youngest governor in the United States after next election.

PROBLEMS OF THE NAVY MEN

Conference of Legion Committee to Devise Ways for Benefit of Members of Branch.

Problems of the navy men who are members of the American Legion and policies affecting naval ex-service men generally will be discussed at a conference of the naval affairs committee of the Legion in Chicago this fall. The meeting has been called by Edward E. Spafford, New York, chairman of the committee, who will announce the date of the conference later.

"The fact that there were eight times as many men in the army as there were in the navy during the World war has tended to minimize the needs of the navy ex-service men," Mr. Spafford declared in announcing the conference. "Few persons know of the high percentage of tubercular cases developed by men in the submarine and submarine service, for instance."

The members of the committee, besides Mr. Spafford, are: Benjamin Brisson, Michigan; Philander Briscoe, Maryland; Claudius G. Pendill, Wisconsin; Fred A. Pillman, California, and C. W. Neville, Jr., Louisiana. The members ranged in rank from lieutenant commander to petty officer.

Legionnaires Respond.

When a post of the American Legion in Jackson, Miss., asked for volunteers to save the life of Welton A. Crawford, overseas veteran, by blood transfusion, 12 legionnaires responded, Crawford, seriously injured in a street car accident, is recovering.

CALORIC SAVES FUEL IN ALASKA AND IN EVERY STATE IN THE UNION
Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 22, 1920.
I have installed in my house one of your No. 48 CaloriC Pipeless Furnaces. We are quite pleased with it. It has heated our seven-room house through the months of November and December, with about 1¼ tons of soft coal screenings per month. By putting in a good fire at 8 P. M., it requires no further attention until 6 P. M.
F. W. Hebert.
PIPELESS CALORIC FURNACE
THE ORIGINAL PIPELESS FURNACE TRIPLE-CASING PATENT

You can solve the problem of high-priced fuel by installing the patented CaloriC Pipeless Furnace.

Records everywhere show that the CaloriC saves ⅓ to ½ the fuel—this in addition to heating the entire home more thoroughly and uniformly than any other system.

The CaloriC is the original pipeless furnace triple-casing patent, No. 1,346,801. This exclusive feature makes pipeless heating successful, and cannot be had in imitations.

The CaloriC is made by largest manufacturer of warm-air furnaces in world. Sold under Money-back Guarantee of your satisfaction. For old or new homes. No expensive installation. No plumbing—no pipes to freeze. Over 100,000 users—many in this community. See this wonderful heating system at our store.

HARVARD LOSES TO CENTRE COLLEGE, KENTUCKY

Soldiers Field, Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 22.—The mighty Harvard football team went down to ignominious defeat today.

For the first time in five years—since the famous Yale-Harvard game of 1916—the Crimson gridiron machine was crushed by the onslaughts of an opponent. And it remained for the stalwart Kentuckians composing the Centre College eleven to stage the biggest football surprise of this and many other seasons. The score was: Centre, 6; Harvard, 0.

Bo McMillin, captain of the Centre team, was the big hero of the struggle. He scored the only touchdown in the third period. It was his other work, however, which was awe inspiring.

A forward pass, Buell to Churchill, gave Harvard the ball on Centre's 3-yard line, but off-side play caused a 5-yard penalty, and a second attempt from Centre's 37-yard line was intercepted by Bartlett. The game ended shortly afterward.

In the second period Harvard sent "Charley" Buell into the play in the hope this star booter would tally with a goal from field. "Charley" made two attempts to toe the ball between the uprights, but failed each time.

ROOSEVELT'S BIRTHDAY IS COMMEMORATED BY NATION

New York, Oct. 27.—Civic, memorial and social organizations joined today in observing the 63rd anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt's birth in a series of ceremonies here and at Oyster Bay.

The program at Oyster Bay included pilgrimages to Roosevelt's grave by delegations of Spanish and World war veterans, boy scouts and school children of the village, who were close to today a wreath on Roosevelt's grave. The children also took part in exercises at the village school where Roosevelt had played the part of Santa Claus at many a Christmas celebration. Representatives of several foreign governments journeyed to visit the Roosevelt burial plot.

In New York the program began with a birthday pageant at Carnegie hall, participated in by several hundred high school girls. In the afternoon trustees of the Roosevelt memorial association were to meet discuss plans for erecting a monument to Roosevelt at Washington and constructing a memorial park in Oyster Bay.

The climax of the day will be reached at a dinner for boy scouts at which Postmaster-General Hayes, Earl Beatty, admiral of the British fleet, and William Boyce Thompson, president of the Roosevelt memorial association, will speak.

At the same hour the Americanism of Roosevelt will be expounded to foreign born citizens at a mass meeting arranged by the league for foreign born citizens.

Husband (to seasick wife): What yer grumblin' abart? Yer ain't been seasick for four years! — Bystander (London.)

RAILROAD STRIKE CALLED OFF BY LABOR LEADERS.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—The rail strike scheduled for October 30 was averted tonight when leaders of the switchmen, trainmen, conductors, engineers and firemen at joint meetings adopted resolutions withdrawing authorization of a walkout and officials of the railroad telegraphers' organization announced they would take similar action. These were the only unions which had authorized a strike.

The vote calling off the strike was unanimous by organizations, W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, announced. The official wording of the resolution adopted was that the "strike be declared not effective."

Unofficial reports were that the firemen's executives had strenuously opposed adoption of the resolution. None of the presidents would confirm this however.

L. E. Shepard, president of the Order of Railway conductors, said that the unions had decided to call off the strike because of "the growing public opinion that the strike would be against the Labor Board and consequently the government and not against the railroads."

MARSHAL FOCH CAPTURES NEW YORK CITY

New York, Oct. 28.—Marshal Foch captured New York today and then sped away to conquer the rest of the country.

Not since Armistice Day did the city's millions turn out with such spontaneous and in such numbers. Had the hardy little Frenchman who led ten million soldiers to victory ridden up Broadway in a war chariot, dragging captives behind him like the emperors of Rome, he could not have received a greater welcome than was accorded him as he rode up the historic thoroughfare in an open touring motor car, cyclone-like in a deluge shower of paper hurled from sky scraper windows.

From the battery, where he was greeted by Governor Miller, to City Hall where he was welcomed by Mayor Hylan he moved in a great triumphal procession after steaming up the harbor to the boom of guns, the ceaseless blast of whistles, the roar of airplane motors, and the shouts and cheers of countless thousand. By his side rode General Pershing, who in the dark days of the war led across the Atlantic America's fighting men who took their places under the banner of victory.

EVELYN NESBIT TAKES MORPHINE; FINANCIAL DISTRESS.

New York, October 28.—Evelyn Nesbit was resting comfortably tonight after taking an overdose of morphine when a city marshal began moving furniture from her apartment, it was revealed today in the life of Miss Nesbit, once the wife of Harry K. Thaw, later the wife of a dancer, Jack Clifford and now Evelyn Nesbit again, no longer a dancer herself, but owner of a tea room in the theatrical district.

"I've taken enough morphine to kill twenty persons!" she yelled to the marshal, falling back with a cry that she was going to die.

An ambulance surgeon came quickly and used a stomach pump. The landlord on hearing about the episode announced he would wait until noon Monday before presenting for the enforcement of the eviction warrant.

FIRE AT STATE COLLEGE.

State College, Pa., Oct. 29.—Fire yesterday damaged the horticultural building at Penn State College to the extent of $35,000 and for a time threatened destruction of the entire building, which is valued at $200,000. Of the loss, $10,000 representing new laboratory equipment.

Miss Emma Francis, a student from Michigan, was severely burned but will recover, physicians attending her said. The blaze broke out when an explosion took place in the chemical laboratory of the agricultural section, on the top floor of the four-story structure. Ether being recovered from waste had been placed in a flask on a heater. As Miss Francis picked up the flask it slipped and broke, exploding.

VARYING FORMS OF CURRENCY

In Many Parts of the World the Use of Gold and Silver Is Practically Unknown.

In odd corners of the world many queer things are used as money.

In China you may find in circulation pieces of gold or silver roughly marked which show the money value as first issued hundreds of years ago. In some they are square oval or indeed any shape they weigh anything up to the pound. The Chinese use small strips of bones of various sizes, some of which have been in use for hundreds of years, their bills with little pieces of [illegible].

In Russia [illegible] are used as money, and [illegible] bills up to the value of [illegible]. The inhabitants of some of the Pacific islands use the Carolina [illegible] their [illegible] [illegible] of value.

Africa provides a varied assortment. Beads, shells, ivory, hide and spear heads are all used as money.

In Oregon, Indians use the most curious pieces of exchange, but we find considerable use made of parrots' feathers woven into ropes. The red with red Indian hardly exists now, but in a few remote countries such as Alaska, he is still to be found using his shell money.

From Quarry to Pulpit.

It was the unprepossessing appearance of Joseph Parker, the famous preacher, which led to him being nicknamed "the Bosham bear."

An American visitor who heard him said he looked more like the captain of a pirate vessel than a minister of the Gospel.

Talking of Dr. Parker's early days, Mr. Albert Dawson of the City Temple said that the minister's parents were so poor that he went to school shod in a pair of clogs with iron round the soles. Ultimately he went to work as a mason.

One day, however, while hewing stone in the quarry, he exclaimed suddenly: "Hammers and stones are poor men's bones!" He threw down his pick, went off, and never returned.

Get the joy that's due you!

We print it right here that if you don't know the "feel" and the friendship of a joy'us jimmy pipe—GO GET ONE! And—get some Prince Albert and bang a howdy-do on the big smoke-gong!

For, Prince Albert's quality—flavor—coolness—fragrance—is in a class of its own! You never tasted such tobacco! Why—figure out what it alone means to your tongue and temper when we tell you that Prince Albert can't bite, can't parch! Our exclusive patented process fixes that!

Prince Albert is a revelation in a makin's cigarette! My, but how that delightful flavor makes a dent! And, how it does answer that hankering! Prince Albert rolls easy and stays put because it is crimped cut. And, say—oh, go on and get the papers or a pipe! Do it right now!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Prince Albert is sold in toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top.

THEY'RE GOOD "LEGION MEN"

Washington State Newspaper Pair Are Members of the Ex-Service Man's Organizations.

The time honored tradition of violent cowing supposed to exist between the average hard boiled city editor and the average soft boiled reporter suffers a relapse in the strange case of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reavis, members of Rainier-Noble post, the American Legion, and its Women's auxiliary, in Seattle, Wash.

Before the war Reavis was a city editor and Dora Deane, a Pacific coast woman newspaper writer, was one of his cub reporters. When Reavis went to war with the 41st Division cavalry, Miss Dora became city editor. Returning after the armistice, the ex-city editor sought to regain the editorial reins by marrying Miss Deane. Finding that as Mrs. Reavis she was the managing editor while he became a cub, Reavis forsook the game and became Associated Press correspondent in Seattle.

"She was pretty good as a cub reporter," Reavis says. "But as managing editor she is a wonder." Mrs. Reavis continues as Dora Deane of the Seattle Daily Times.

INDIAN, LEGION POST BOSS

Elias Wesley and Sixteen Washington Buddies Also Control Town of White Swan.

Where his fathers once tried to resist the civilization of the white man, Elias Wesley, fullblood Yakima Indian, commander of an American Legion post, and sixteen of his Yakima "buddies" now control the prosperous town of White Swan, Wash.

More than half of the post's members are fullblood Indians. Wesley, the commander, is the village meat cutter. The remainder of the Indians, all members of the Commercial club, are engaged in business in the town. All are graduates of a government school and are better educated than the average American.

Because he was a meat cutter, when Wesley enlisted in the United States navy they made him ship's cook on the U. S. S. Western Chief. In the membership of the post there is a Medal of Honor, a Medaille Militaire, a Croix de Guerre and a Victoria cross.

Guess how many Bristles in this Brush?

And win enough DEVOE Velour Finish to mottletone any room in your home

EVERYONE in town is entitled to one guess in each daily contest to be held on the dates noted below.

The person who comes closest and who is present in our store when the contest is decided (which will be each evening) will be given enough Velour Finish to Mottletone any room in his or her home.

The actual contest brush will be displayed in the window of our store on the dates noted below.

The number of bristles is known to only one person, the traveling Mottletone demonstrator. Come in each of these days and fill out your contest slip.

Cctcker 31st end Nov. 1st and 2nd

Mottletoneing gives beautiful effects of color and texture that only the wealthiest homes could afford in the past.

It can now be done easily and economically over plaster burlap or wallpaper with Devoe Velour Finish merely touched here and there with a handful of ordinary wrapping paper.

Come in and do a square of Mottletoneing yourself during the dates noted. A factory expert will be present to explain all details.
